GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Lappin's Hall, Saturday Night October 4.

Let Every Irishman Attend.

Dr. J. H. Randall, of Chicago, an eminent Irish orator, and a life long democrat, will address the meeting, and show by a convincing argument why every democrat should join the republican party—the party of progress and reform. Give him a rousing reception. The Bower City Band will be in attendance.

WILLIAM.

"Karl" to-night at the opera house. Don't fail to attend.

The common council will hold a regular meeting on Monday evening.

Right this way for the fair ground—only ten cents!" will be heard no more for a year.

The Bower City band will be at Lappin's music hall this evening, and furnish music for the meeting.

Dr. Randall, the eloquent Irish orator of Chicago, will speak in Lappin's music hall this evening.

The fire department turned out last evening and completed the filling of the fourth and fifth wind cisterns.

Every Irish-American in the city should visit Lappin's music hall this evening and hear Dr. Randall's speech.

Conductor John Crowley is running the Janesville accommodation train to Chicago during the absence of Conductor Rich.

Hon. James Sutherland and Colone Smith, of the Gazette, will talk politics to the good people of Fulton Center this evening.

Apollo hall was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening, the occasion being a social dancing party by the Union club.

Miss Lou Neal is entertaining the members of the L. A. O. F. club this afternoon, at her home on Washington street, First ward.

The Blaine and Logan Invincibles will assemble at their armory on River street this evening, at seven o'clock, sharp, for escort duty.

Lydia Jane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Halsky, died last evening, and will be buried to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends.

The Grand Army men had in use at the fair grounds this week, one of the celebrated Badger stoves. The work which it accomplished was simply wonderful.

Yesterday workmen commenced the excavation for the fire cistern at the central school building. The cistern is located on the south west corner of the school lot on Dodge street.

Judge Paton, of the municipal court, disposed of some half dozen county fair drunks this forenoon, by imposing a nominal fine and giving the inebriates some good advice, which they willingly took, and departed.

By direction of the Milwaukee Presbytery, Rev. W. F. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church this city, will preach in the First Presbyterian church of Beloit to-morrow, and declare that pulpit vacant. Rev. Mr. Brown expects to return home on Monday.

Our people will be well entertained in either Lappin's music hall, where Dr. Randall, of Chicago, speaks on the political issues of the day, or at the opera house, where Gardner, as "Karl, the peddler," will amuse and delight all. Both should have a full house.

City Treasurer J. A. Blout and Clerk A. O. Wilson, of the board of education, this morning, met the city school teachers at the central school building and disbursed the sum of one thousand, five hundred and eighty-eight dollars, being the amount of the September pay roll.

City Treasurer Blout is now making out a list of delinquent tax payers, for presentation to the judge of the circuit court for judgement, and all taxes not paid by Monday will be assessed the extra five per cent. penalty. The list of delinquents is about the same as that of last year.

Mrs. Wheeler & Stevens, the real estate agents, who have just taken possession of their new rooms in the Phobus block, report this afternoon of making a sale of one hundred and sixty acres of land, the property of Mr. John Howland, to Mr. Herman Bonush, the cordial agent, for $9,000.

The boards of registry for the several wards in this city will hold their first meeting at the different polling places on Tuesday next, October 7th. Every voter should see that his name is on the registry book, and that all illegal voters are omitted. That every legal voter is entitled to one vote and an honest count is one of the cardinal principles of the republican party.

REMEMBER the date of Burr Robbins' show is October 15th.

TOO AMBITIOUS.

Coming down the east side of Milwaukee street, this morning, was noticed a fourth ward man, wearing a Blaine hat and a well-become expression of countenance that was not at all in keeping with the hot or jubilant feeling of the party, of which he is a stout supporter. Slapping him on the shoulder with a hearty "good morning, John."

"Any body sick down to your house, any discouraging news from Ohio, or what in time is the matter?"

He replied, "No, my family is all well, and Ohio is all right, and getting better every day, but I'll tell you, I'm in a pack of trouble."

"Why?" was asked with a good deal of solicitude. "Is your wife talking of taking the stamp for St. John or Bala?"

"Oh, no" he said, "nothing is that kind, but the fact is my wife is altogether too ambitious."

"Well," we said, "that is a queer complaint; we know of several men who manage to enjoy a good deal of trouble of various kinds, but they never complain of too much ambition in the quarter you speak of. Tell us all about it."

His reply was, "I don't very often speak of family matters on the street, but the fact is, I am really worried about my wife, and at the rate she is going on there won't be anything left of her in three months but a shadow."

"Consumption," we asked in a sympathetic tone.

"Oh, no," he answered, "quicker than that," you see we are having breakfast now-a-days at half past six o'clock. My wife manages to wake up at five, and after making a hasty toilet, she quietly slips down the front stairs, and into the kitchen, and without any noise manages to make the fire, and have breakfast all ready before the German, who resides in the kitchen, wakes up; then about a quarter past six, she rushes out into the front hall, and shouts "breakfast," and before I can possibly get into my clothes, and down stairs, she has waited on the table, and the hired girl and I stand around and wonder why we were created; and then the air with which she says, "Well, I won't wake up a hired girl if she never wakes up," shows an ambitious spirit that is a good deal more wearing on the constitution than consumption, and I tell you, it makes me feel blue, when I think that I shall be a widower before spring, and just to gratify my wife's ambition to beat the hired girl."

We suggested that the weather would soon be cool enough, so he could sleep on a cot down in the kitchen, and keep the fire running all night, and then he could put a telephone up in the hired girl's room and arrange with the central office to ring the girl up at half past five. The suggestion was a good one. A spring cat and a telephone was noticed going down his way this afternoon, and we expect to hear a favorable report.

REMEMBER that Burr Robbins will exhibit in Janesville, Wednesday, October 15th.
